Growing Power of Socialism Felt in the Capital of Belgium.

FIGHT ON STREETS

Troops Side with the Rioters and Defy and Jeer Their Officers

KRUGER IS VERY ILL

Brussels, April 10.—The soldier reserve was called out this morning by the government as a precautionary measure in view of the growing disorders instigated by the socialists. When mustered in it was found that dissension had spread to their ranks also. The men defied their officers, footed the government and sang revolutionary songs. The situation is most serious. The rioters used revolvers freely and the police returned the fire. Fifty persons, including two policemen were injured. To add to the seriousness of the situation the unrest is spreading among the miners and a strike of laborers throughout Belgium is feared.

Conference of Boer Leaders. Pretoria, April 10.—A conference of most of the Boer leaders will be held shortly at Klerksdorp. Steyn, Dewett, Botha, Schalkburg and Delarey are expected to attend the conference.

Amsterdam, April 10.—Kruger is seriously ill with influenza. The members of his entourage fear the worst.

BADGER PEARLS IN DEMAND IN EUROPE

The Mississippi River Product Being Sent to Austria and Other Places for Manufacturing Purposes.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., April 10.—Edward T. Martner, one of the largest clam shell dealers on the upper Mississippi river, has made a contract with a manufacturing concern in Austria for a large supply of pearl button shells, which will be shipped to that country and made into fancy buttons and trinkets.

Several months ago upon request, a number of samples were sent them with the result that the first shipment of sand shells and nigger heads will be started next week. Mr. Martner also made several shipments to London last fall. Foreign manufacturers have ranked Mississippi shells higher than the salt water article and are now looking to the United States for a supply of raw material. John Peacock, a local pearl buyer, has purchased a double button pearl of Mike Sturnoff, a clam fisher. The gem is of a rich silver color and weighs forty-five grains. It is valued at several hundred dollars.

SOCIALISTS BEGIN CAMPAIGN WORK

Central Committee Will Organize in the Badger State—Campaign Literature Going Out.

More than 1,000,000 pieces of campaign literature will be disseminated throughout Wisconsin between now and the fall election by the state central committee of the Social Democratic party for the purpose of educating the people in the principles of socialism.

The state campaign has already begun and will be pushed vigorously, a special effort is being made to strengthen the party in those parts of the state where the movement is at the present weak. Besides the distribution of literature other methods will be used to win support to the ticket next fall, among the features being the appointment of an organizer whose duty it will be to establish branches of the party in every quarter of the state and the holding of mass meetings at various intervals.

BIG FIGHT WILL BE CALLED OFF

Fitz Says England Is Only Place for a Meeting, and Jeffries Says It Is Absurd.

New York, April 10.—As a result of a shake over the clubs, Robert Fitzsimmons has decided that he will not fight Jeffries either in San Francisco or Los Angeles. If Jeffries is really anxious to meet Bob he will have to fight in England. Fitz said today: "I have acted in perfectly good faith in this matter. I selected the Charleston Club merely because it made what seemed to me the best business offer. Because of the condition of the California clubs and the character of their managers, to fight out there will be out of the question. As an instance I may mention the fact that the Century club never made known its willingness to post a forfeit of $25,000 until our negotiations with the club were off. If Jeffries is really anxious to meet me he must go to England. That is the only place, it seems, where a good match can be pulled off."

BELOIT HAS BAD FACTORY DISASTER

Fall of 5,000 Gallon Tank of Water Damages Blake Knitting Works in Line City.

Beloit, Wis., April 10.—(Special)—By the fall of a 5,000 gallon tank full of water and weighing twenty tons, the New Blake Knitting Works in South Beloit was last night damaged to the extent of $1,000 and the starting of the plant will be delayed one month. The accident occurred at 6:30 p. m. and was caused by imperfect foundations at the base of the superstructure on the top of which rested the tank of water, 60 feet up. One side of the superstructure sank so far that the tank started from the top over on the dye room crushing through the roof on to a girder which broke and pushed out 15 feet of brick wall on both sides. The room is a complete wreck and will have to be almost entirely rebuilt.

It was the intention of the Blake Co. to remove the plant from Racine into the new works at Beloit, commencing on Monday next, but this will now be delayed a month.

A short time later he became assistant cashier in the bank of Everett, a position he held at his death. He married there ten years ago. Well Known Wisconsin Newspaper Man Dead—He Was Founder of the La Crosse Daily News.

Chicago, Ill., April 10.—Alexander C. Nevins, a well-known newspaper man, and of late years telegraph editor of The Record-Herald, died yesterday at Alexin Brothers' hospital of heart failure.

Mr. Nevins' health had been bad for several months, and two weeks ago it was found necessary to perform an operation to save his life. Although the operation was successful, he had become so weakened by sickness that he was unable to recuperate from the shock.

Mr. Nevins began his newspaper work in LaCrosse and was the founder and editor of the La Crosse Daily News of that city. He had been connected with all the leading Chicago papers during his residence here.

BELOIT DEFEATED ROCKFORD TEAM

Close Baseball Contest in the Line City Yesterday—Wisconsin Wins the First Game.

Beloit, Wis., April 10.—Yesterday's game between the collegians and the Rockford leaguers was close, Beloit winning by a 5 to 3 score. Of the three Rockford pitchers Graham suffered the most, four runs being obtained from him in the first inning. Killian was in better shape than herebefore and held down the heavy hitting students well. TO ERECT PEARL BUTTON FACTORY

Janesville Company Will Prepare Means to Enlarge Their Business.

TRADE IS GROWING

New Plant Will Be 24x50 Feet, Two Stories High, with Basement.

MORE ROOM NEEDED

The Janesville Pearl Button Co. have purchased a lot on McKee boulevard, between the Willow Grange tobacco warehouse and the store, and are planning to erect a factory for the manufacture of pearl buttons.

The factory will be 24x50 feet, two stories high. The basement will be stone and the superstructure of wood. Adjoining the factory will be a shell shed 30x24 feet, making the entire structure 21x80 feet.

Just when the factory will be erected is uncertain as their lease on their present location on North Main street does not expire before February next. Should they be able to sublease their present quarters they would build at once.

The Janesville Pearl Button company is doing a good business and can sell all of the buttons they can make. They employ about thirty persons steadily and everything is working nicely with them.

The shells for the factory are purchased at Prairie du Chien, Wis., and Albany, Ill., they being fished out of the Mississippi river at those points. The shells produced at these points are superior to Rock river and Sugar river shells, in that the Mississippi river shell make a semi-transparent button and the local shells make a button having a milky appearance.

This factory is one of our most successful industries and the officers are: C. A. Roessling, president; E. A. Roessling, secretary, and E. J. Roessling, treasurer.

FOR AUTOMOBILE FACTORY

Frank Arnold of Waukesha was in this city yesterday talking with a number of business men in regard to establishing an automobile and gasoline engine works in this city. Mr. Arnold is interested in a plant of this character and is abundantly able to carry out his plans. He is looking for a location in a city where local capital will take an interest in the business. He was well pleased with Janesville and thinks it would be a first-class place for a plant of this kind.

DR. TALMAGE LIES AT POINT OF DEATH

Condition of the Celebrated Preacher is Very Precarious, and the End is Expected.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage lies at the point of death at his home on Massachusetts avenue.

Dr. McGruder, the attending physician, announced last night that his condition was precarious and most apprehensive.

Dr. Talmage a little over a month ago took a trip to Mexico with the hope that it would cure him of an attack of influenza, from which he was suffering. His condition instead of improving grew decidedly worse, and four weeks ago he returned to this city. Upon reaching home he was attacked with congestion of the brain. His condition at times was very favorable for ultimate recovery notwithstanding his advanced age of 70 years. Last night he was taken with a sinking spell and his condition grew alarming.

During the morning Dr. Talmage's condition was marked by a decided failure to respond to treatment. Today his life is despaired of and his death is expected at an moment.

DROVE A NAIL INTO HIS HEAD

Oklahoma Woman Reported to Have Killed Drunken Husband

Wellington, Kan., April 10.—Mrs. Peoples, a Bohemian living in Grant county, Oklahoma, just across the line from here, is reported to have killed her husband by driving a nail into his head. Peoples, who was a farmer, went home drunk, beat his wife, and after ordering her to get supper went to sleep with his head leaning against a pine partition. When supper was ready the woman tried to awaken him but failed. Fearing that he would beat her again when she awoke for not calling him she drove a nail through the other side of the partition into the man's head, killing him. Mrs. Peoples made no attempt to escape.

MISS STONE HAS ARRIVED HOME

Says She Has Recovered from Effects of Her Captivity.

NOCRUELTY TO HER

All Money from Her Proposed Lecture Tour Will Go to Ransom-Payers.

DIDN'T KNOW BANDITS

New York, April 10.—The steamer Deutschland with Santos Dumont and Miss Helen Stone aboard arrived this morning.

Miss Stone said that she suffered from sea sickness during the voyage but had recovered from the effects of her captivity.

Speaking of the capture she said the brigands fed her and Mme Tsilka well as they did not want the captives to become sick on their hands. They became very angry when Miss Stone caught cold and when she sprained her knee they were wild with rage.

Who the captors were she never knew. Most of the time they traveled nights and she had no idea where she was. No personal cruelty was heaped upon the captives because the brigands held to the ancient belief that to harm the young mother and child was a terrible wrong.

Mme Tsilka's baby was born in captivity. All the money Miss Stone will make on the lecture tour will be used to repay those who contributed toward the ransom.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 10.—The Milwaukee Electric railway and Light company has decided to erect an office building on the site of the old St. Gall's church, Sycamore street, near the Union railroad station, to cost $500,000, and before the season is over will spend $4,000,000 in the erection of an immense power plant on River street, one block from the city hall. Engineers are now at work on the plans for the later improvement, but nearly everything is in readiness for the office building and central station.

The company has also made preparations to build a line to Fox Point north of the city, which location has recently become very popular among wealthy people, who have built summer homes on the high bluffs of the lake. An effort will be made to build up an aristocratic suburb of homes similar to Evanston or Oak Park. Golf links have been provided and miles of macadam streets laid out.

An official said today that within the next year the street railway company would spend over $5,000,000 in improving and extending its system.

The second murder was that of George Heywood whose body was found on the sidewalk. He was shot in the head. Wm. Jones, a boarder in the Heywood home, was arrested for the murder.

LABOR MAYOR AT HARTFORD, CONN.

Election of a Clothing Clerk Was Unexpected—Is in Favor of Municipal Ownership.

Hartford Conn., April 10.—Never was ancient Hartford more surprised than when the news spread last evening that Ignatius A. Sullivan, clerk in a clothing store, labor candidate for the mayoralty, had upset the republican majority of two years ago, over 3,000 and had won the fight by nearly 600 votes.

For years past the democratic party has been steadily losing ground in Hartford, but the practical transfer this year of the reins of management to the labor element resulted in repeating in Hartford the recent labor victories of two other manufacturing centers—Bridgeport and Ansonia.

It is no political secret that the labor element will not rest content with this, but will aim to capture the ticket in part or wholly in the democratic state convention next September.

Mayor Sullivan is of Irish descent, but born in Massachusetts thirty-four years ago. He is tall, of medium build, with regular and pleasing features and courteous manners. In early life he learned the papermaker's trade, but dropped it for the more congenial pursuit of a salesman in a clothing store. He became a proprietor at Springfield, and only three years ago he came to Hartford as a salesman in a large local establishment. He became interested in the labor movement, was chosen president of the Central union of the city, and now is serving his second term as president of the State Federation of Labor. He is in moderate circumstances and occupies a modest home in the outskirts of the city.

HORRORS OF THE WATER TORTURE

MOTHER'S SORROW

Family Will Demand an Investigation by the Lower House of Congress.

OFFICERS ARE CRUEL

Milwaukee, April 10.—The death of Edward E. Richter, a soldier in the Philippines, from the effects of the "water torture," has created commotion and is likely to result in a thorough investigation.

Edward E. Richter was born in Milwaukee, January 8, 1873. His parents resided here for several years and then moved to Hancock, Mich. From thence to Hartford, Wis., and after Mr. Richter's death Mrs. Richter removed to Syracuse, N. Y., where she has lived since with her daughters, Mamie, 21 years old; and Nellie, 17 years old. Richter enlisted March 28, 1891, at the recruiting office in the Bastable block in Syracuse and went at once to Columbus, O. From there he was transferred to Vancouver, then to San Francisco and sailed for the Philippines Nov. 15, arriving there Dec. 14.

Datress of His Mother

When seen at her home, 103 Van Buren street, Syracuse, Mrs. Richter said she received word of her son's death Tuesday, March 18. When asked if she had learned any of the particulars, she replied: "Yes; the second lieutenant of his company sent us a letter in which he said that the cause of death was peritonitis. The following day we received a letter from the War Department, saying that the cause of death was appendicitis."

At this point Mrs. Richter almost broke down, but recovering herself, continued:

"My boy gave his life for his country. Gave all any man, rich or poor, can give. He's dead—dead," and her eyes filled with tears that slowly ran down her face as she looked out of a window as if her mother-love could give her power to see her son's far-off lonely grave.

Mother Learns of Brutal Act

When it was gently intimated that her son had been the victim of a horrible torture she was dazed for a moment, looked from her daughters to the interviewer, and exclaimed: "Eddie was killed! Do you hear? He was killed! Oh, my boy, my poor boy; you were killed by your own officer! I thought nothing could be worse than to have you die, but to have you killed—" and Mrs. Richter broke down completely.

How Richter Met Death

Theodore Richter, an uncle of the boy, has taken active steps to get an investigation. He said last night: "So far as I have been able to learn, February 7 was pay day with Company I, Twenty-Eighth Infantry, Cavite province. The men had a jubilee, but Eddie did not take part because he was confined to the guard house awaiting trial for some petty offense against army regulations."

"Liquor of some sort was passed into the guard house and after drinking it the soldiers became noisy. After taps sounded a lieutenant went to the guard house and ordered the men to be quiet. For a time, the order was obeyed, but after the officer left the room several of the men began to talk in an ordinary tone of voice. Sound Hand and Foot.

"Upon hearing Eddie's voice the lieutenant became angry and ordered the guard to bring Eddie outside. Eddie was bound hand and foot. Then Eddie called the lieutenant down in good style. He was gagged and one of the guard under orders, brought a big can of ice water containing five gallons out of the guardroom. The water was taken out by the dipperful and slowly dropped, drop by drop, on Eddie's face.

"He suffered the agonies of the damned. He twisted and squirmed as much as the cords that bound him would allow. When the torture was at its height he became very sick. Then when he ceased to struggle the cords were cut and they tried to revive him. No sign of life was apparent and the post surgeon was sent for. When the surgeon arrived he announced that Eddie was dead and had been for some time. I thought of writing to the War Department, but I think it would be better to write to Congressman Otjen."

POINTS TO COURSE OF CLINTON BANNER

Rock Co. Republican Makes Some Pertinent Suggestions and Vigorous Thrusts in Clinton Herald.

The Clinton Banner, a little paper that has devoted its energies to prohibition with different success, recently came out against Senator Whitehead, giving reasons why the paper could not support him. A Clinton republican replies through the Clinton Herald, in the following vigorous manner:

In an issue of the Banner, bearing date April 3d, 1902, I noticed a short criticism of the actions of Senator Whitehead's political actions, and an explanation why the Banner could not support the Senator.

Now, Mr. Editor, is it not surprising that the citizens in this vicinity should be obliged to depend upon a sheet that has so lately turned from radical prohibition advocate to a half breed republican organ for an introduction to a man who has lived among and had the respect and confidence of this place for so many years. It is not absolutely preposterous for Senator Whitehead to have the audacity to enter into politics, and aspire to the Governorship of the state without first asking the advice and consent of the editor of the Banner?

We know the Banner stands for good citizenship, which it would have us believe has for its foundation principle the downing of gambling places and all other resorts of vice. If this were so to all we could say a hearty amen, but "presto change" the election is over, the wicked gambling hole, the vile saloon is once again relegated to the dim and distant past, there to lie and wait until its own corruption until the eleven months and two weeks shall have passed away when the stone shall be rolled away, and again out will creep the hydro-headed monster, to be again hung in effigy before a wondering and admiring people.

But, in the meantime, something must be done, says the knight of the quill to his devil, which, by the way at this time is a cold water one, that our readers may be filled and we thereby receive their patronage and blessing.

I have it, says the editor to the devil. Here is a good man whose character is beyond reproach, a man who has the courage of his convictions, therefore "but for all that we cannot support him."

Consistency, thou art a jewel, but the name is not known to the editor of the Clinton Banner.

Why? Because the editor condemns machine politics in one breath and upholds them in another.

The Whitehead machine is all wrong, it may be because of the many scars it received during the days of the rebellion when this same machine unfurled the glorious old flag, swept slavery from her borders and defied old England, or it may be that the newer and untrammelled LaFollette machine with all the glamour of its fresh coat of paint, yet to be tried and proven, has caught the eye of the editor, and through the manipulation of a few subscriptions smoothly and properly applied, has won his admiration and support. The editor of the Banner is a great hand for announcing the fact that he will stand for the right at any cost and without fear. Mr. Whitehead simply did those things which the Banner editor said he would do at some future time. All honor to John M. Whitehead, he is a Rock County man and a true and loyal citizen. Let us rally around his standard, a standard that is never lowered to bossism through fear of defeat, or wish for favor.

REPUBLICAN.

STRENGTH

Is an attribute of manhood universally desired. Few people understand that the only source of physical strength is food, and that every one who has sufficient nourishing food should be strong. But there are thousands of puny people who have plenty of good food. How is that explained? The explanation is simple. Food does not nourish the body unless it is properly digested and assimilated. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion hinder the proper digestion and assimilation of the nutrition contained in the food eaten. Thus the strength of food is lost, wasted.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and its allied organs. It causes the perfect digestion and assimilation of food and thus it makes men and women strong.

"I had been suffering from indigestion so badly that I could not work more than half the time, but now can work every day and eat all the food I want," writes Mr. Victor L. Hayden, of Blackstone, Nottoway Co., Va. "Why? Because I took Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has put new life and energy in me, restored my health and made a man of me once more. I used to weigh 170 but had gotten down to 144, now am back to 160 and will soon be back to 170. My old weight is nothing happens. Your medicine has done it all."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." The People's Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered edition, or 34 stamps for the cloth-bound volume, to Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

union is the largest Kindergarten organization in the world, and comprises over seventy Kindergarten associations in all parts of the United States and Canada. Its total membership is over 7,000. More than 1,500 delegates and visitors are expected at the convention.

Never before in the history of the world has there been so much interest taken in the betterment and the development of children. Educators have given great attention to higher developments, but until late in the nineteenth century was there very much thought bestowed on the first impressionable years of childhood. Froebel was the first educator to systematize child study and place it on a scientific and psychological basis. He began with a few children and called his class a Kindergarten. His aim in the experiment was the development of the faculties, the expression of senses and the higher use of the emotions of children, developed by psychological methods along the lines of true principle.

The growth of the Kindergarten has been marvelous, both in Europe and America. Not only are they now a part of the public school system in all large cities, but mission Kindergartens for the poor have been established in all the crowded districts of large cities, where busy parents are too much occupied, too tired and often too indifferent to attend to the needs of little children.

The association will have some eminent men among its lecturers. Among the men who will speak are Charles W. Elliot, president of Harvard University; Henry S. Pritchett, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Prof. Paul H. Hanus and Prof. Earl Barnes; and School Superintendent E. P. Seaver and T. M. Dalton.

Miss Susan E. Blow, Mrs. Fannie B. Ames, Boston; Miss Anna P. Williams, Philadelphia; Miss Bertha Payne, Chicago; Mrs. J. H. Stannard, Boston; and Mrs. J. H. Stannard, Boston, will give addresses, or conduct conferences, and other leaders in Kindergarten work will take part in the discussions which form an important feature of these meetings.

Series of Evangelistic Meetings
Sunday Morning.

Rev. E. J. Baskerville, late pastor of Cass Avenue, Methodist church, Detroit, Michigan, and five years pastor of the Methodist church in Madison, Wis., will begin a series of special evangelistic meetings in Court Street M. E. church, Corner of Court and Main streets, next Sunday morning at 10:30 and continue from two or three weeks.

The President of the Bay View assembly speaks thus of Mr. Baskerville:

"The campmeeting at Bay View, Mich., for 1901, was favored with the presence and services of Rev. E. J. Baskerville, evangelist. In the quarter century of our organization we have had none superior to him. His preaching and methods of work were highly approved by workers and hearers. The results in the awakening and conversion of sinners and the perfecting of believers were most satisfactory. We heartily commend him as an evangelist of the genuine gospel type."

TRAGIC DEATH OF MISS A. WOODMAN

Stalked in on a Wedding at the Home of H. T. Miller, at Denver, Colorado.

The Denver Republican of April 5 contains the following account of the tragic death of Miss Anna Woodman, the seventeen year old daughter of Warren Douglas Woodman, when he was about to be married to Miss Lottie Newville on the evening of April 2d.

"Death stalked in upon a wedding party at the home of Henry T. Miller, No. 1947 Stout street last Thursday night.

The wedding guests were assembled and the ceremony was about to be performed, when fire burst from a parlor lamp. A wreath made of paper flowers and set on the shade caught fire. The fire was apparently extinguished and Miss Anna Woodman, 17 year old daughter of the bridegroom was tramping out the fast of the embers of the smoldering wreath when her dress became ignited. In a moment she was a mass of flames from her feet to her head.

Her father Warren Douglas Woodman rushed to save her but was too late. The filmy dress burned like paper and by the time the fire had been beaten out the girl was fatally burned. She suffered terribly and her screams rang through the house.

In her agony she called to the minister, Rev. B. B. Tyler, and requested him to go on with the ceremony. The guests remained in the house and Rev. Tyler performed the ceremony that made Mr. Woodman and Miss Lottie Newville husband and wife.

The death of Miss Anna is the last of a series of misfortunes to the Woodman family. Three years ago Mrs. Woodman the mother of Anna, passed away. Two daughters Luelin and Josie died before they reached their eighteenth year.

Miss Woodman was a member of the junior class of the West Denver High school. She was a conscientious Christian and for many years attended the South Broadway Christian church.

C. B. Woodman, of the town of La Prairie, is a brother to Warren Douglas Woodman and an uncle of the unfortunate young lady. Mr. Woodman and his family spent the summer in this city about eight years ago and occupied one of W. B. Noyes' houses on South Jackson street.

During their residence here they made many friends who will doubtless remember Mr. Woodman and the unfortunate young girl. This is the fourth daughter that Mr. Woodman has lost, all of them dying before reaching the age of eighteen. One daughter died a short time ago while on her way to this city in search of health.

WOMEN IN THE STOCK YARDS.

Taking the Places of Men in Chicago's Distinctive Industry.

Slowly but irresistibly women and girls are forcing men out of the lighter work that is done at the stock yards. Thousands of them are employed in the packing and canning factories there, and if the business grows as it has done within the last three years, thousands more will be used. In no case, however, are the women working at anything but what might be termed "kitchen work," such as cutting dried beef, packing cans, stuffing sausages and labeling cans.

Bread has been aroused by this growth of female labor in the yards, and many of the social settlement leaders fear the time may come when the girls will use the knife even in slaying. So great has this become, that Miss Mary McDowell of the University of Chicago Settlement suggested it at a meeting of the Woman's Union Label League.

General opinion is that the day is still far distant when the girls will actually take a hand in the killing of even a chicken.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 women and girls are on the pay roll of the various stock yards houses. They form 75 per cent. of the employees in the canning factories. In both concerns the girls, while taking work that once was done by men, are hired to do only the lighter grades of labor.

In one of the rooms where forty girls were busy painting cans, and where the fumes of the paint were heavy, all were asked if they liked their work, whether they got sufficient pay and whether they were willing to give up their places to men.

"Like my work?" asked Jennie Laughlin. "Sure, I do. The pay beats that of my sister down on State street all hollow. Why, I was off two days of last week and still made $9. Don't think for a minute that I am going to give up this job to any man. Cutting him out? Sure, I am, but what's the diff?"

"The question is right here," said James Rostand, who works in the packing department of Armour & Co. "The girls have been coming in here by the hundreds and have taken the lighter work. There is not a girl and never will be a girl or woman who will use the knife for slaughtering purposes, but they have taken the easy money making jobs. Their fingers are more deft than ours and where strength is not necessary they are doing well. I am under the impression that no man has been forced out of easy work."

The girls cut and pack dried beef and label cans. Beef is cooked for extracts and then packed by them. They clean and pare vegetables and put them into cans for use. The meat extras are trimmed and cut up by them. All this is called "kitchen work." In addition to that, the canning companies have their girls solder the cans and feed the tin machines."—Chicago Tribune.

The same idea.

The preponderance of public opinion is manifestly against the theory of a Detroit physician that everybody will be crazy within the next three centuries.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

On Saturday, matinee and night, April 12, at the Myers Grand, the jolly jingle, "The Burgomaster," will be presented with all its wealth of wit, beauty and song, that characterized its long and prosperous runs in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Buffalo and Boston, where it is considered the neme of the jolliest kind of jollity seen in years. This merry comedy glories in the achievement of there never being a dull moment; the music is the fluent, graceful and melodic kind that invites encore after encore, and the humor is of that right, clear cut American crispness that is positively one continuous round of laughter and applause; at any rate, the great cravings of the American public for "something new" seems to have found ample satisfaction in "The Burgomaster," as the sayings are new, the dances novel, the specialties original, scenery pretty, the music popular to a degree and the cast an "all star" one. In fact, the whole piece is a positive revelation to all admirers of beauty, laughter and song. This is the original "all star" cast that has been appearing in only the larger cities of the East for the past two seasons.

Tomorrow evening all lovers of high grade music will have a chance of being entertained in the highest degree when the Beloit College Musical clubs will present one of their concerts. The clubs are composed of the best of musical talent of the college and have been making a tour of the neighboring states, and they have been giving concerts that have pleased some of the most exacting audiences. The program is well arranged and shows up the members of both the glee and instrumental to the best of advantage. The seats for the concert are now on sale at the box office.

ARREST FAMILY FOR MURDER

Mother, Son and Two Daughters Arrested for Killing Father.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 10.—The deputy sheriff of Van Buren county in Michigan arrested Lydia France, her two daughters and one son on a charge of having killed Culeb France on Feb. 1.

France died in Van Buren county from a gunshot wound, and it was given out by his family that he had committed suicide, although some suspicious circumstances were then noticed.

The body was buried at Plainville on Feb. 3. Soon after the family removed to Manton. Since their arrival there they have been under surveillance, and as a result the arrest was made. The accused refused to make any statements and started on the noon train en route for the Van Buren county jail at Pawpaw. No motive for the murder is known.

Few Fish in Cedar Lake Seine.

Crown Point, Ind., April 10.—The seining of Cedar lake, which has been in progress for two days under the direction of the state fish commission, to rid that body of water of the objectionable fish, such as the dogfish, gar and carp, has proved a failure. On Tuesday the seine was drawn in several times and the day's work netted one perch weighing three ounces. Yesterday only nine fish were taken out—a dogfish weighing ten pounds, and several black bass and a sunfish. It is believed the scheme will prove a failure, as those operating the net are inexperienced and the seine is much too small.

Asks Removal of Jerome.

New York, April 10.—Charges of oppression, abusive processes and interference in a civil action have been filed against District Attorney Jerome. They were sent to the governor. A petition asking for the removal of the prosecutor accompanied the charges. The charges grew out of the case of Policeman John C. McGee, who on April 2 last was subpoenaed to the office of the district attorney and questioned by Assistant District Attorney Sanford concerning the payment of Alimony to McGee's wife. The case represented in the subpoena proved to be fictitious.

Draper May Lose His Leg.

Urbana, Ill., April 10.—President Andrew Sloan Draper of the University of Illinois, who was seriously injured in a runaway last Sunday, is not in as good condition as was expected. It is possible that his right leg will have to be amputated above the knee. The leg was not broken, but a large artery was ruptured and the physicians feel that it might be the safest plan to amputate unless his condition improves soon. The left leg, which was broken, is not in any great danger.

May Have Brooks' Murder.

New York, April 10.—Statements which may prove to be a solution of the mystery surrounding the murder of Walter F. Brooks in the Glen Island hotel the night of Feb. 14 were made by a man who wishes to keep his identity from the public. He said Brooks was killed by a young woman living in Newark who had been wronged by Brooks. The young woman has taken an oath to kill herself the minute she learns the police officers are searching for her.

Wausau, Wis., April 10.—At the recent city election there was a tie vote for alderman in the eighth ward. It was agreed between the two candidates that they should cut cards, the king of any suit to be high and the ace low, and the one cutting the highest card to win. A new pack of cards was secured and shuffled and the first one secured and shuffled and the first one while the best the other could do was to cut the six spot of hearts.

WORK IN PRESBYTERIAN CREED

Revision Committee is to Propose Changes in Confession.

Washington, April 10.—The Presbyterian creed revision committee has finished its work except as to the brief statement of doctrine.

Overtures will be submitted to the assembly, which meets in New York in May, for action on the declaratory statement with reference to the third and tenth chapters of the confession. These relate to predestination and election of infants. The object is to remove misunderstandings on these points by declaring that the confession is not to be understood as teaching that any children who die in infancy are lost.

An overture will be sent to the general assembly dropping from the text of the confession the chapters relating to the pope of Rome, and that it is a sin in another to refuse an oath when administered by rightful authority.

Thanks, dear Mrs. Pinkham, again, for the health I now enjoy."

WHAT IS THE ISSUE?
The state campaign, which for a time has been lost in the spring elections, will again take on activity, and the contest in the ranks of the republican party will be spirited and very much in earnest. The LaFollette wing of the party will support the governor in his ambition to succeed himself, and the conservative element will support Senator Whitehead. So far as the personell of the candidates are concerned, the campaign should be free from abuse or personalities. Both gentlemen are recognized as men of high moral character, and nothing can be said against them. Governor LaFollette possesses elements that contribute to his personal popularity, and Senator Whitehead is equally well endowed. These two men will be pitted against each other, until the state convention determines which one of them shall lead the party to victory in the fall campaign. Nothing but death will remove Governor LaFollette from the contest, and the same contingency will be necessary to remove Senator Whitehead. The preliminary work is done so far as the candidates are concerned, and the real issue will be under discussion.

What is this issue and why is it that the republican party is so divided? This is the important question, and its intelligent solution will determine the results of the campaign. The question is not whether the man LaFollette or the man Whitehead shall be governor. It is broader than that and of vastly greater significance. Principles are involved that have to do with the welfare of the commonwealth. The party is divided, not on men, but on measure. One class is hurled as "stalwarts" and the other as "half breeds," but these are only nicknames and have no bearing on the real issue, which involves conservative and common sense republicanism.

The republican party has long been noted for fads. There has long been connected with it a constituency possessed of high ideals and visionary theories. This class has never been destitute of leaders and if the party failed to furnish them, loyalty to party principles prevented alliance with some other party. The green back movement was an offshoot from the republican party, and national and state prohibitions never would have seen the light of day, without republican support and development. The free silver craze which absorbed the democratic party, found many deluded people in the ranks of republicanism, and populism in Kansas and the western states, owed its birth and life to the same party.

These various fads, which masqueraded under the guise of reform, were republican fads, and while many of the men who were led away by them, were honest in belief, and sincere in purpose, the principles exploited were none the less theoretical and impractical. They were visions or ideals, lacking the merit of common sense, or wise judgment.

The party in Wisconsin, has in the main managed to steer clear of this class of breakers. It went on the rocks a few years ago on a fad called the "Jennett Law," exploited by a man who could not see beyond an "abstract principle," and it is threatened today by a reform movement equally visionary and impractical. The primary election law, under the provisions of the Stevens bill, which was the only measure that would receive consideration, is as visionary and impractical as populism itself, and the theory of equitable taxation, as demonstrated in the one mill school tax, is a fair specimen of theoretical reform. An administration that will persist in adopting the former, at the expense of all other legislation, and that will endorse the latter, is a reform administration of radical type, which by no means represents the conservative commonwealth. These theories are populistic in tendency, and however honestly they may be endorsed, they belong to the list of fads that have played havoc with the party, wherever exploited. The real issue in the republican party, is republicanism against radicalism, under whatever guise it may train, and however plausible it may appear. This fact was fully recognized, when the republican league was organized, at the close of the legislative session, by the men who for four months had been handicapped in every effort to carry out the wishes of their constituency. In due time this constituency, which was state wide, selected Senator Whitehead as a standard bearer, a man in every way worthy of the important mission. The convention will determine whether the principle outlined shall be endorsed. If this wise judgment prevails they will be and the party saved from further humiliation.

BUTTER VERSUS BEEF.
The senate has passed the oleomargarine bill with some amendments of its own, and the bill now returns to the house for concurrence. When the house acts the bill goes to the president for approval. Oleomargarine and all kinds of substitutes for butter, are taxed ten cents a pound, but if uncolored the tax is to be a quarter of a cent a pound. As the manufacturers must color their product and can not sell it at an advance of 10 cents a pound, the bill is clearly designed to absolutely kill the manufacture of butter line and oleomargarine.

While the bill favors the dairy in fact, it is doubtful if the farmers themselves demanded such an extreme measure. We already have laws requiring butter substitutes to be properly labeled and to pay a just tax. The politicians took it up however, and the small fry congressmen tumbled over each other in attempting to introduce bills that would positively prohibit the manufacture of the rival article, for the purpose of ennobling the farmer vote.

It must be remembered that oleomargarine is an established article of commerce. Last year the value of the product in the United States amounted to $12,500,000. All scientific authorities agree that it is perfectly wholesome and healthful. People who use it know as the "poor man's butter," because it is a cheap and reliable substitute for the more expensive article. All the cattle raising industry in the western and southwestern states is in favor of the oleomargarine product. All the large cattle interests throughout the country want oleomargarine manufactured. When the law absolutely stops the manufacture of the article, it will strike a blow at the cattle industry that will be felt all over the country. In other words, in the struggle for governmental assistance, butter has won the fight over beef. The butter monopoly has triumphed over the beef monopoly. Butter will now advance to still higher prices, and the people will pay the bills.

The Northwestern believes that oleomargarine should never be panned off on the public as pure butter, but, if properly labeled, the sale of the butter substitute is just as legitimate as the sale of any other article. In the interests of the great public that buys butter and oleomargarine, it almost inclined to don't the propriety of such an extreme measure as the present bill. Yet the dairy interests have had such an influence on our legislators that the bill has passed both houses. Those who know the president, believe that he will veto it when it comes to him for approval. Mr. Roosevelt is something of a cowboy himself and, if he makes up his mind to stand by the cattle interest, he will probably do it regardless of consequences.

There is an old adage to the effect that "the world is governed too much" and a very intelligent school of political economists believe that even our industries would thrive better and reach a higher degree of success if left unhampered by legislation. While this is an extreme view of it, yet undoubtedly there is danger now in the feverish and over-stimulated mind that congress will go too far in passing bills like the one under discussion. It is entirely proper to shut out foreign competition by the passage of tariff bills; but it is a grave step in another direction to pass a law to stifle one branch of manufacturing in order to build up another.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

The Northwestern has been so pronounced in favor of the "oleo" bill, that the Gazette is pleased to note a change of heart. The arguments advanced are good, and well worth considering.

Mayor Low, of New York, made a successful effort to close the saloons last Sunday. Of the 6,500 resorts of this class, it is estimated that 4,000 of them observed the law. The balance were protected by hotel licenses. The blue laws were also enforced on many lines of business. It was the first Sunday that some New Yorkers ever experienced. When they will get accustomed to it they will like it.

The fact that 700 horses and mules are being shipped to South Africa every month, for the use of the English army, indicates that the war is not yet over. The little town of Lathrop, Mo., is headquarters for the American market, and 150 men are employed in training and putting the horses in shape to ship. $80,000 was spent for feed last year.

The famous United States prisoner Carter, held at Leavenworth for felony, is liable to have his sentence cut short by death. He is a victim of typhoid fever, with chances against recovery.

The transport service between San Francisco and the Philippines is being investigated. It has been discovered that civil service does not always promote honesty and a general shaking up may follow.

The state of Washington will now take a whirl at the merger. Minnesota was knocked out in the first round, but the coast state may be more fortunate.

With Rose in the race for the presidency, Bryan, Hill and Cleveland may as well go back and sit down.

PRESS COMMENT.
Appleton Crescent: If the government can give a bounty to ship builders why should it discriminate against farming or any other pursuit? All industries should have equal rights.
Milwaukee Journal: If Governor

LaFollette should decide, to go to French Lick springs, it would be necessary to call Lieut. Gov. Stone to the chair, and that the governor would prefer not to do.

Madison Journal: Down in Beloit they worked the "endless chain" to attempt to defeat a candidate. A number of persons plotted to vote against him and to get ten others to do the same, and so on. The Groves men were equally successful with their buzz saw arrangement.

No man can afford to be without advertising. No man who advertises can afford to omit the business tone from his advertisements. It is necessary to make advertising business-like in order to insure the success for which all men hope.—Advertiser World.

Racine Journal: More congressmen are calling for an early convention. Why should the people be called upon to go through a congressional campaign of several months just because these congressmen may have things fixed for their own pleasure. They should take their chances. In the light of a state campaign, for this idea of congressmen having patent right of their seats is all wrong. If people will just take this matter in hand they will effectually cure all future members from rushing the early congressional growler.

Jackson County Politics: I notice that J. J. McGilivray is running for senator and booming himself like a circus with printed "reading." Outwardly "Mc" fills the bill of particulars that Artemus Ward ascribed to the monkey—"he is an amosin' little cuss"; but if he ever gets into the legislature when there are enough members of the Populist tendencies to do some legislating, he is liable to prove a dangerous man. Anything that is lurid enough to be temporarily popular always catches him. Last session he introduced an anti-trust bill that would have been too rapid to catch a Texas or a Kansas legislature, and hammered away at it in a manner that removed all doubts as to his sincerity, and also to his good sense, but for another reason. Every measure with Populist tendencies has always found an advocate in him provided there was a chance to talk and display himself, and there are men of the opinion that he would be willing to set fire to the historic Prince Albert coat, provided he could by that means collect an audience to applaud the performance. Politics aside, the people of his district ought to select a representative with more common sense and less personal vanity.—E. R. Petherick in Milwaukee Journal.

ALL THE EGGS IN ONE BASKET.
The Milwaukee Free Press prints a story to the effect that some Milwaukee Republican leaders, including Mr. Pfister, wish to "slide track" Senator Whitehead and substitute a German, and that there is serious trouble over the matter in the Wisconsin Republican League.

This story does not seem probable. That after Whitehead had been put squarely into the fight and the state rallied around him, a panel game should be worked on the Senator or the public is to preposterous. It is safe to assume that, in the stalwart movement for the gubernatorial nomination, all the eggs are in one basket, and Whitehead has the basket.—Eau Claire Telegram.

SUPREME COURT WILL DECIDE.
The oleomargarine bill has passed the senate and seems likely to become a law. Senators Spooner and Quarles voted for the bill, the former saying it was for the good of the people. The bill was never framed to derive revenue and is therefore as fraudulent as oleomargarine is when sold for butter. The votes of Senators Spooner and Quarles would lead one to believe that they thought the government of the United States was not strong enough to compel the manufacturers and handlers of oleomargarine to brand it and sell it for what it really is. The revenue officers could look after such a matter just as well when it is not taxed as when it is. The passage of the bill will not help the dairy interests of the country one iota but will keep the poor man in the large cities who cannot pay the price demanded for butter from using it in his family. The matter however, will probably be reviewed by the supreme court and finally decided.—Watertown Times.

STUDENTS OUT ON LARK IN TROUBLE

SCARE HOWARD BAACK AND TWO LADIES ALMOST INTO FITS.

Shots from a Revolver, and Other Bandit Antics, Gave the Escapade Almost the Features of a Hold-Up—Police Succeed in Trailing Up the Young Fellows.

A piece of devilry that surpasses anything yet attempted by Janesville boys, was successfully carried out last evening in the Third ward. It was nothing less than a hold-up with all the Chicago features. The affair was first planned for the purpose of giving Howard Baack, a son of F. H. Baack, a scare, but before the young men had finished their evening's performance they went far enough to land themselves in the clutches of the law.

Last night about 9:30 a message was sent to the Myers house from F. H. Baack's residence, asking that an officer be sent to Mr. Baack's house to look for some men that had held up Howard Baack, and later a couple of ladies on their way home.

Officer Beneke responded to the call, and a few minutes later Officer Brown was on the scene. The family at Baack's were much excited and the two ladies were badly frightened.

Young Baack stated that he was on his way home and when near Geo. S. Parker's residence, he was set upon by four men with masks on their faces and armed with revolvers. They jumped Young Baack, who fought like a tiger and threw him down. A handkerchief was jammed into his mouth to keep him from crying out, and during the scuffle four or five shots from a revolver were fired to intimidate him. Baack, however, continued to fight and struggle and finally succeeded in breaking away and rushed into his home, which was the next house to where the hold-up occurred. He was completely exhausted when he got into the house, and was unable for some time to give an account of what had happened.

The young men, after losing Baack, ran east on Court street and stopped in some thick brush at the junction of Court and Vernon streets. Here they remained hidden until Miss Besie Stenson, who is employed as a bookkeeper by McVear Bros., and her sister, Mrs. Byron Backus, came along on their way home. When the ladies were about even with them, the boys jumped out of the brush. The ladies began to scream and ran down the sidewalk to Mr. Baack's residence, where Miss Stenson collapsed and fell to the ground overcome with fright.

After Officer Brown reached Baack's residence and had heard the particulars, he decided it was boys that did the work and started on a quiet investigation.

He started east on Court street and had gone but a short distance when he saw a young man coming towards him. He kept right on and when he was a short distance away the young man started across the street. Officer Brown stopped him and questioned him as to where he had been and where he was going. The young man gave his name as Fred Hadden and said he had been up to visit Miss Letta Whitton for the last two hours. The officer was not satisfied with the statement and started to take Hadden up to Whitton's to see if his story was true.

After going a short distance Hadden broke down and said he was one of the boys and that the others were Victor Whitton, Guy Chase and a boy named Farley. He stated they started out to frighten Howard Baack but had no intention of scaring the women. They had but one revolver and that was loaded with blank cartridges and that they had fired about ten shots with it around the neighborhood during the evening.

A domestic employed at the home of Charles P. McLean met the boys earlier in the evening near the corner of Jackson street and Milwaukee avenue and was struck across the breast by one of them and is feeling quite lame today from the effects of the blow.

Officer Brown took the names of the boys, who are all high school students and they will be given a chance to interview Chief Hogan at the lock-up at four o'clock this afternoon.

The ladies concerned in the affair are justly indignant at the usage they received and are anxious that the young men be given a lesson that they will remember.

FAMILY CIRCUS FOR SMALL TOWNS

Latest Enterprise to Be Organized in Janesville Will Do Business in This Section of State.

The latest enterprise to be organized in Janesville for the summer campaign is the "Family circus." It is the intention of the gentlemen connected with this enterprise to organize a first class wagon show, to visit the towns away from the railroads not usually visited by large organizations.

The promoters have already secured a large number of live animals and freaks of nature, for the show and have contracted with a number of first class artists for the circus performance. They are also awaiting answers to a number of offers, made to local celebrities to take part in the enterprise and are confident that they can secure them.

Large bills notifying all who have curiosities for sale to apply to the management have been posted in prominent places. The staff of officers for the show is not yet complete but those selected so far to fill the most responsible positions are: G. Underwood Thomas, General Manager; Kansas City, McKinney, Press Agent; Palm Beach, Russell, Ring Master; Blind Kink, Animal Tamer; Andrew Carnegie Buchanan, Refreshment Agent. All correspondence should be directed to D. Confidence Watt, Treasurer and Ticket Agent.

There is no doubt of the success of the organization and a number of handsome yellow wagons and spotted corses have been purchased.

Funeral of Carl Helse

BUSH MAY SUCCEED SUP'T GOODNOW

Names Suggested for Superintendent of the Milwaukee Division—Other Railroad Notes.

With the announcement of the resignation of General Superintendent Goodnow of the Milwaukee road, which will take effect shortly, and the probability that Assistant Superintendent David L. Bush will be appointed to fill the vacancy, local railroad men are wondering who will succeed Mr. Bush. W. W. Collins of the Iowa and Dakota division has been spoken of, as has J. F. Gibson of the Chicago division of the road.

There is also a probability that Supt. H. B. Earling of the Council Bluffs division may be the man.

It was reported yesterday in railroad circles that Supt. J. W. Stapleton of the Dubuque division of the Milwaukee road had resigned and would engage in private business. He entered the service twenty years ago as a telegraph operator.

Percy S. Rustis, general passenger agent of the Burlington road, has been promoted to the position of passenger traffic manager of the company to take effect April 15.

The records of the Northwestern road for the first three months of the year show that the road hauled to Chicago a total of 13,485 cars of live stock. The Milwaukee road comes next with 16,000 cars to its credit.

TWO WAGONS BUILT FOR THE GYPSIES

Janesville Carriage Works Has Just Completed the Carryalls—Both Are Highly Decorated.

The Janesville Carriage Works have just completed two wagons that are unique in their way, being built for the gypsies who make their winter quarters in Rockford and Quincy, Ill. The wagons are highly decorated and are about the size of the ordinary carryall. The interior back of the front seat, being fitted up for sleeping purposes.

They are closed on all sides with the exception of the front in the rear of the seat, which is fitted with canvas curtains so that the opening can be closed at night. The sides are decorated with large landscape paintings and the whole outfit is finished in a bright yellow color which gives them a handsome and striking appearance.

Of the two wagons just completed, one belongs to Peter Kerrikan of Rockford, and the other to Charles Thorpe, of Quincy, Ill. The carriage works have turned out a number of these wagons but the two now ready for delivery surpass anything before built by them. The owners of these vehicles will certainly have a swell turnout for their summer trips.

Boothblack is a Novelty in London.

From the fact that the following item was printed in an English magazine in 1828, boot-blackening shops appear to have been unknown there at the time.

In Paris there are scores of little shops where the gentlemen may sit on a raised bench and read the newspapers, whilst a garcon cleans their boots—for two sous. These shops are neatly fitted up, and are generally situated near the theaters or the public promenades.

Asphalt Pavements.

About twenty-five years ago government engineers decided to pave Pennsylvania avenue in Washington with asphalt. That was the beginning of the general use of the scientific mystery for street pavements. To-day over 234,000,000 square feet of street pavements in the United States and Canada are covered with asphalt. This asphalt pavement would make a boulevard twenty-six feet wide over 1,750 miles long and would reach from New York to New Orleans, and then have several miles for side streets.

MURPHY LEAGUE NETS $600 ON ERMINE

The Performance Showed Excellent Theatrical Talent—Opera May Be Taken to Ft. Atkinson.

The production of Ermine for the benefit of the Murphy League added to the treasury of that society something over $600. While the patronage was liberal, expenses were heavy and the net proceeds not unusually large. The members of the league are well satisfied, however, and they fully appreciate the generous assistance rendered by every member of the company, as well as the kindly expression of encouragement tendered by the public. The league is entitled to every encouragement. It is doing a fine work for the cause of temperance in ways that are so unobtrusive, that but little attention is attracted. The Gazette expresses popular sentiment in saying, God bless the boys in their work.

The old opera Ermine, with its catchy music and clever costumes, is ever new, and congratulations were heaped on every hand for the company amateurs, who entered so heartily into the spirit of the play. Monday night was good, but Tuesday night's performance went through without a break. It was a responsive audience full of enthusiasm, with no disposition to criticize, had there been occasion. Every part was well taken, and the chorus was unusually fine. The opera demonstrated the fact that Janesville possesses talent equal to almost any emergency, and the expression was quite common that some members of the Ermine company had missed their calling. Mrs. Learned, Miss Best and Miss Treat were favored with encores and bouquets and generous applause throughout rewarded the entire company.

The opera may be produced at Fort Atkinson in the near future and if it is, some of the Janesville talent may be invited to participate.

DAIRYMEN WILL MAKE AN EXHIBIT

Convention of National Association at Milwaukee in October, Means
About 3,500 Visitors.

The convention of the National Creamery Buttermakers' association, to be held in Milwaukee the third week in October, will bring nearly 3,500 people to Milwaukee. The convention lasts one week, beginning Tuesday, and is preceded by the judging of the exhibit of butter, which will be held at the exposition building.

While the size of the convention is a prominent feature, the exhibit is an innovation, and the same butter which will be seen here will afterwards be tested by the government officials, who will make an award. Five months before the Milwaukee meeting this exhibit will be collected and exhibited at the largest dairy market centers in the country, awards being made at each place.

The entire exposition building will be devoted to the exhibit of butter, supplies for the creamery men and other matters in which they are interested. The exhibit of butter—if it compares with that of last year at St. Paul, which it will do doubtless—will contain nearly 1,000 tubs. Five judges will require a whole week before the opening of the convention to make the awards.

Lincoln and Sioux City offered larger sums of money to secure the convention than Milwaukee, but the latter city was successful, one reason being the advanced stage of the dairy industry in this state and another the excellent reputation of Milwaukee as a convention city.

Officials of the association will shortly visit Milwaukee to secure accommodations for the butter makers. Other arrangements will be made beginning at once, so that the convention can be made a great success. The exact date will be announced in a few weeks.

The exhibit of machinery will be a feature and the largest of its kind in the country. Even one of the more prominent machines of the various kinds will be represented by a sample. Power will be furnished together with material to operate the exhibit.

The sessions of the buttermakers will occupy all the attention left after the exhibition is made, and the social features will be few, although prominent in their way. No entertainments will be given by any Milwaukee society, but will be entirely from among the association members and supplies.

The convention was secured through the efforts of the Citizens' Business League, Wilmer Sieg and R. E. Watrous personally inviting the association to meet here this year at the convention last fall in St. Paul.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

A Citizen of Janesville Pays
a Well-Earned Tribute.

The following public statement of a respected citizen, adds one more emphatic endorsement of merit to the scores that have appeared before:

Mr. E. Dillenbeck, of 126 Milton Ave retired farmer, says: "My wife was roused with kidney complaint for four or five years, and complained of pains in the small of the back in the region of the kidneys. The symptoms all indicated that the kidneys were deranged, and the doctors who treated her said that those organs caused the trouble. As she did not get any better we thought Doan's Kidney Pills might give her relief, and procuring them at the Peoples drug store, I had her use the remedy. It did for her all that could be expected. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and you can use our names as saying what has been stated above."

NOTHING ALARMING.

The Eau Claire Telegram after sifting up the situation says: But on the whole it appears as though the master minds of the conservative Republican organization, otherwise the Wisconsin Republican League, are engaged in political strategy which would look simple enough from an inside stand point, and that under cover of the dust raised since the Milwaukee election, ways and means of achieving the downfall of La Follette are kept steadily in hand. There is nothing plausible about the notion which seems to exist in independent or La Follette or Democratic circles that the League management is "rattled" or that it is engaged in the perilous task of swamping horses while crossing the stream.

PRESENTING IT PROPERLY.

Competition is sharper today than ever before. People like to trade with a man who is up-to-date in his ideas and who shows his purpose as well in the advertising he does as in the stock he carries. The man who gets the best results in all his business efforts is the one who presents his advantages to a prospective customer in the most attractive way.—Advertising World.

Gen. Doe Resigned His Job

Milwaukee, April 10.—A surprise was sprung on local politicians yesterday when City Attorney Hange announced the appointment of Thos. H. Dorr as corporation counsel in place of General J. B. Doe, resigned. General Doe could not attend to his private practice and look after the city work, and preferred to give up his official position. The appointment is for four years.

The Neglected Husband.

"What makes you so blue?" asked the first new woman at the club.
"My father-in-law has come to stay with us," replied the other, "and John and he sit at their knitting all day and cry about my treatment of John."
—Catholic Standard.

Ample Opportunity.

First Schoolboy—It's dead easy for a school-teacher to be smart.
Second Schoolboy—That's right. They've got lots of chance to look over the books and learn the lessons they didn't study when they went to school.
—Brooklyn Life.

An Old Adage Enforced.

Dombey—How did you get that scar on your forehead, Jones?
Jones—Oh, my wife and I had an argument and she obeyed that mean old adage—strike while the iron is hot.—Judge.

A Source of Sadness.

"Our delusions are the sweetest things in life," said the gentle optimist.
"How about the man who thinks he can sing?" asked the cynic.—Washington Star.

Just Like the Best of Us.

He—You have a headache, you say?
She—Yes, I have.
"Do you suffer much from headache?"
"Yes; always when I have it."—Yonkers Statesman.

Bad Grammar and Functions.

Ellen—How do you like your new society neighbors?
Agnes—Oh—don't say I said so—but, really, they ought to quit giving receptions and go to night-school.—Brooklyn Life.

As to Taking Chances.

Patience—A girl takes great chances on her first proposal of marriage.
Patience—Do you mean if she accepts or declines it?
"Either way."—Yonkers Statesman.

Probably a Traveling Man.

"His wife says they were married for three years before they had their first quarrel."
"Was he away on business?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Her Nose.

Wigg—What a beautiful nose she has.
Wagg—Yes, that's her scent of attraction.—Philadelphia Record.

Did the Best She Could.

Mistress—I am not quite satisfied with your references.
Applicant—Naythur am I nunt; but they's the best I could get.—Tit-Bits.
